A fine achievement for Mrs. Georgina Ramo

A moving ceremony was held on Wednesday this week where 13 adult learners had been graduated with book two pidgin and book one maths in adult learning from Literacy Association of Solomon Islands.

Georgina Ramo who can't read or even write her name in the past can now be able to write and speak fluently after attending the literacy training since last year.

In the graduation ceremony on Wednesday, Georgina cannot hide her excitement when she stood up in front of her colleagues and read from their work book.

The literacy training which Namoliki group enrolled in has create a big positive impact for the women in the community especially those women who involved in church programs.

Meanwhile Priscilla Maeniuta of LASI acknowledged CAUSE Project and World Bank for funding that enable the women to be who they are today and thanked trainer Mrs. Janice Mae for her hard work in teaching the adult learners.
