

Weekly Wrap-Up Newsletter

The weekly wrap-up newsletter is a platform for staff to be updated on the happenings in all PIUs and PMU on the progress of projects CAUSE implemented in various communities but also a space of interaction between staff and management.

Issue 22 – 25th September 2020

Inside this issue

1. Alotaa footpath progress
2. Auki clinic abluion progress
3. Town end sch footpath
4. Banana valley market
5. Botanical footbridge
6. Completion Munda jetty
7. Antioch footbridge
8. News/ Announcements

Final section of Alotaa school footpath

Alotaa school in Auki is currently working on the final section of the footpath which runs from the classrooms up to the school playing ground. The last part of the section is always muddy as water always anchor there. With this last section it will now boost the students attendance especially those from inland that usually used the muddy road to come to school.

Progress of Auki Clinic

Work on slabbing the Auki clinic Ablution block is progressing very well at the moment. Currently local workers are working on drainage system and payment of the clinic. This will address flow of water system and protect the clinic surroundings.

Townend school footpath

Town end school footpath in Auki is shaping up very fast at the moment. The footpath runs from the Western end of the classroom to the Eastern end. So far school children enjoying walking on the completed section.

Banana Valley satellite market

The satellite market at Banana valley of Gizo is shaping up well at the moment. The local workers are expecting to put up rafter and roofing next week.

Botanical foot bridge

Botanical footbridge has reached the footing stage. Currently the local workers are working on aligning the beam to follow by flooring and railing. The project is aim to complete next month.

Completed Munda Jetty

The Munda jetty in Western Province is finally completed. The seven meter long jetty is been describe by the islanders as the bridge to Munda town. People passing by on OBM are happy to see such development that will definitely help them to access services in Munda.

Antioch footbridge

Work on the new footbridge at Antioch in the Central Honiara is progressing very well at moment. Currently the workers are working on foam works and structures of the bridge before actual pouring of concrete will take place in the coming weeks.

News/ Announcements

1. Flight to repatriate Solomon Islands students studying in Philippines will be on 27 and 29 September.
2. Member of Parliament for North Guadalcanal Constituency, Hon. Samson Maneka has switched allegiance to the ruling Government.
3. Voters from North East Guadalcanal and Central Honiara Constituencies will go to the polls on the 18th of November to elect their members of parliament.
4. The U.S. Embassy in Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea, is awaiting the outcome of the report into the explosion that killed two bomb specialists in Tasahe, West Honiara.
5. While Coronavirus (COVID-19) has severely impacted the Solomon Islands tourism industry, the country has nevertheless achieved strong success in improving its global ranking as a destination for adventure tourism.