News/ Announcements.

1. The Leader of Opposition, Hon. Matthew Wale, has urged the government to adopt a zero-risk approach in its efforts to stop the entry of the deadly delta variant. The Opposition Leader says that what the Prime Minister highlighted during his speech on Monday seem to imply that with additional preparations our quarantine stations should be able to contain delta should it reach our shores.
2. Prime Minister Manasseh Sogavare has called on the public to respect frontliners as they have sacrificed so much to keep the country safe. I need not remind you all that the only reason this country still enjoys freedom is a direct result of the sacrifices of our frontline workers and their families," Prime Minister Sogavare said during his national address this week.
3. Prime Minister Manasseh Sogavare has defended his governments decision to enforce the mandatory administration of the COVID-19 vaccine. Speaking during his weekly nationwide address the Prime Minister says that the country is faced with an imminent threat, and his government is taking decisive steps to address this threat.
