

Weekly Wrap-Up Newsletter

The weekly wrap-up newsletter is a platform to link and update staff and project stakeholders on the happenings in all Project Implementation Units (PIUs) and Project Management Unit (PMU) on the progress of projects CAUSE implemented in various communities of Honiara, Guadalcanal (areas outside of town boundary), Auki, Gizo, Noro and Munda.

Issue 89, 1st April 2022

Steep sections of Noro and Gizo roads to be concrete

Inside this issue.

1. Noro and Gizo roads
2. Munda Seawall
3. Noro CBD Jetty
4. Hill top Jacob's ladder
5. Honiara PMU to resume training next week
6. Titinge Footbridge in Progress
7. New Satellite Market to be build at Naha
8. News/ Announcement

Climate Resilient Spot Improvement Works for Gizo, Noro In Western Province will start procurement its needed construction materials next week. These critical/Steep road segments will be concrete sealed

The steep section of roads in Noro and Gizo will soon be convert to concrete. The climate resilient spot improvements on these roads will commence soon. Procurement of material will start as early as next week.

Munda Seawall Progressing

Work has resumed on the Munda sea wall after the covid restriction has been lifted. Currently, workers are working on removing the casing and continue concreting the other areas.

Noro CBD Jetty

Noro CBD jetty is progressing well, at present workers are working on piling. Over the coming weeks we are expecting to see new changes as workers are determine to complete the jetty at the end of this month.

Hill top Jacob's ladder in Auki completed

Titinge Footbridge in Progress

The 367 meters long Jacob's ladder located behind the LKP building at Auki was completed this week. The ladder is serving the residents living up the ridge.

The decking and railing of Titinge footbridge has been completed. Currently workers are working on the approach section, Pouring of concrete on the approach section will be in the coming week.

Honiara PMU to resume training next week

New Satellite Market to be build at Naha

Honiara PMU will recommence the ISDT training next week on a covid restricted protocols. The training has been suspended since the out break of the covid 19. With the approval of the government oversight committee this week it is a good news for youths who are frequently checking on for the trainings.

Work will start soon on the new propose satellite market at Naha. Clearance work has been done already. As soon all formalities is completed work will start.

News/ Announcements.

1. Chairman of the National Oversight Committee (NOC) and Secretary to Prime Minister (SPM) says its important for the public to report those with fake vaccination cards to either Police or Ministry of Health and Medical Services .
2. The government through the Ministry of Health and Medical Services (MHMS) is sorting outstanding payments which had affected services at the National Referral Hospital (NRH). In a statement the ministry said it is addressing shortages of some food items and oxygen bottles at NRH as reported by this pa- per early this week.
3. New Zealand have won the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™ Oceania Qualifiers after a Bill Tuiloma brace and goals from Joe Bell, Chris Wood and Matt Garbett secured a 5-0 win over Solomon Islands at the Grand Hamad Stadium in Doha, Qatar.

