

Weekly Wrap-Up Newsletter

The weekly wrap-up newsletter is a platform to link and update staff and project stakeholders on the happenings in all Project Implementation Units (PIUs) and Project Management Unit (PMU) on the progress of projects CAUSE implemented in various communities of Honiara, Guadalcanal (areas outside of town boundary), Auki, Gizo, Noro and Munda.

Issue 105, 22nd July 2022

Gizo –JF Kennedy stadium completes next week

Inside this issue.

1. Gizo –JF Kennedy stadium completes next week
2. Road on dump site complete soon
3. Climate resilience road in Barana started
4. Noro/Munda youths to graduate today
5. Kakabona footbridge is progressing
6. Kiluufi Ablution Block completed
7. Cleaning and waste collection
8. News/ Announcement

The JF Kennedy stadium abluion block in Gizo is in the final completion stage. Currently, workers are working on the final touches in the interiors and cleaning up. Full completion is expected next week.

Road on dump site complete soon

The concrete road at Gizo dumpsite is set to complete next week. After that work will begin on the identified roads for concreting as well.

Climate resilience road in Barana started

Work on the climate resilience road at Barana in the mount Austin area has started. Pouring on concrete will start today and into the coming week.

Noro/Munda youths to graduate today

A total of 34 will be graduating today after completing a seven days ISDT training in Noro. The youths comes from Munda and Noro communities. The youths will then be engaged in short term employment with the project.

Kakabona footbridge is progressing

Work on the new footbridge at Kakabona is progressing well. Pouring of concrete will be in the coming weeks.

Kiluufi Ablution Block completed

The ablution block at Kiluufi of Auki has been completed. Currently there are minor works in the interior and cleaning up.

Street cleaning and Waste Cleaning

Street cleaning and waste collection in Honiara is ongoing from Alligator in the East to Poha bridge in the Western end of Honiara.

News/ Announcements.

1. As Solomon Islands opens up to the world, and in so doing dropping all mandatory quarantine requirements on arrival, variants of the highly contagious Omicron are infecting the populations of neighbouring Fiji and Australia.
2. The National Referral Hospital (NRH) have now stocked up on medication and inhaler devices that were initially in low supply
3. Weightlifter Jenly Tegu Wini heads the Solomon Islands' 19-strong team for the Commonwealth Games team in Birmingham. The athletes will compete in aquatics, athletics, beach volleyball, boxing, judo, table tennis, triathlon and weightlifting.
4. The group stage of the OFC Women's Nations Cup 2022 ended with a thrilling 2-2 draw between New Caledonia and Solomon Islands, a result that sees both teams qualify for the quarter-finals.
5. Returning Officer for the by election for Vavaha ward in Honiara has declared Mr. Ezra Fo'oro as the new Councilor, who won with 368 votes.

